Learning Together – Empowered for Life

Job Title: ECT Teacher of Mathematics - September 2024

Salary: Main scale

Working Time: Full Time (1.0 FTE)

Contract: Permanent

Due to growth in the department and the relocation of a member of staff, we are keen to recruit a dynamic and highly motivated colleague to teach within our excellent Mathematics department from September 2024 (earlier if appropriate). We welcome applications from Early Career Teachers and those completing their training this year. You would be joining a highly supportive team containing experienced mentors as well as staff who are completing their ECT this year. Everyone in the department is always happy to help and we work together as a fun-loving and cohesive team to give students the best possible learning experience.

Our students are delightful; keen to learn, highly motivated and characterful. They provide a wonderful opportunity for the successful applicant to show great commitment and enthusiasm.

You will be joining a friendly, professional and supportive organisation that is completely committed to securing the best academic and personal development outcomes for our young people and provides excellent professional development for staff. Yateley School is a large and highly accomplished centre of excellence, firmly rooted in its local community. Examination results are exemplary and compare favourably with other schools, both locally and nationally at GCSE and A Level. We are a cohesive and ambitious school, excited about the future of education and determined to develop. If you are a committed, resilient and creative person, capable of making a positive contribution to our school and inspire both students and staff, then this could be the post for you. The successful candidate will share the ambitions, ethos and values of Yateley School.
